

Board Member Role Description

Location: Cape Town

We are looking to expand our board and as such are looking for people who are passionate about South African maths education and who would like to make an active contribution to the growth, governance and success of our organisation. If you would be interested in serving on the Numeric board, read on!

About Numeric

We are a small team of friendly people who are on a mission to help young South Africans excel in mathematics. At present we run 100 classrooms of afterschool mathematics for Grade 6 and 7 learners in public schools around Cape Town, Johannesburg and Durban, catering to approximately 2,500 children each year. Our coaching staff are primarily second, third and fourth year Bachelor of Education students recruited from our partner universities in these areas.

You can read more about us on our website or by reading our most recent annual reports.

About the Role

Board members are asked to serve as advisors, ambassadors and advocates for Numeric, and to be informed about the organization's mission, programs, and impact.

In particular, board members are expected to:

- Attend and engage productively in quarterly and ad hoc board meetings;
- Actively review agendas and supporting materials prior to board and committee meetings;
- Serve on at least one board committee (remuneration and HR, audit and risk, nominations);
- Respond to senior management's requests for advice and support;
- Lend personal and professional networks (where appropriate) to further Numeric's mission
- Review and declare any potential conflicts of interest on an annual basis; and
- Attend Numeric events whenever possible

Please note: These are unpaid positions, but will be reimbursed for any reasonable expenses incurred as a result of their board membership.

Numeric will ensure:

- Orientation to Numeric and board service (including a site visits to see our programs)
- Reasonable notice of board meeting dates;
- Appropriate and respectful use of directors' time;
- Timely distribution of information and materials;
- Annual discussions regarding your participation to ensure meaningful engagement.

Apply Now

Please complete our online application form on or before the 15th of October, 2021. If you have any questions, please direct them to Andrew at board@numeric.org.